

TAPPS ENU Sharing Event

Overview of the Day

10.00-10.30: Arrival and refreshments

10.30-10.40: Welcome to Edinburgh Napier University (Dr Cameron Graham, Project Lead)

10.40-11.00: Introduction to the TAPPS Project (Cameron Graham & Alison Bell, Project Leads)

11.00-12.00: Keynote address:

Dr Sian E. Jones & Dr. Clare Uytman (Queen Margaret University):

'Baking Chocolate Chips into the Cookie Dough: Anti-Ableist Assessment in Further and Higher Education'

12.00-12.10: Break

12.10-13.00: Case Study Presentations 1 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions):

Zack Moir (Edinburgh Napier), 'Student-led Assessment: Approaches, Challenges and Experiences'

Anna Bak-Klimek (Edinburgh Napier), 'Assessment as meaningful dialogue'

Sheila Godfrey (Edinburgh College), 'The importance of flexible assessment in today's diverse learning environments'

13.00-13.40: Lunch [provided] & Networking

Overview of the Day

13.40-14.40: Case study presentations 2 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions):

Catherine Mahoney (Edinburgh Napier), 'Advocating for Inclusivity - Enabling Optionality through Authentic Assessment at Scale'

Heather Earnshaw (Edinburgh Napier), 'The collision of GenAI and authentic assessment: building a collegiate response'

Claire Garden (Edinburgh Napier), 'Not forgetting...Inclusive assessment for research postgraduates'

Anne Savage (Abertay University), 'Continuous assessment: Motivations and challenges from a student and instructor perspective'

14.40 -14:50: Break and refreshments

Overview of the Day

14.50-15:50: Case study presentations 3 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions):

Tanya Lubicz-Nawrocka et al. (Edinburgh Napier & University of Stirling), Transforming Assessment by Giving Learners Agency: Co-Creating an Authentic Assessment Marking Rubric'

Faye Hendry & Alyson Young (University of Aberdeen), 'From design to delivery: the inclusive assessment journey on the University of Aberdeen PGDE programmes'

Rizwan Mammoo (City of Glasgow College), '"Simulating" Success: Redesigning Assessment Timing for Diverse Learner Journeys'

Robert Kielty (University of Stirling), 'Competing to win: Observations on assessment submissions in a sport professional placement module'

16:00: Close