

TAPPS Ayrshire College Sharing Event

Overview of the Day

10.30-10.40: Welcome (Ann Heron, Head of Quality Enhancement, Ayrshire College)

10.45-11.00: Introduction to the TAPPS Project (Cameron Graham & Alison Bell, Project Leads)

11.00-12.00: Keynote address: Dr Molly Taylor, City of Glasgow College : 'Neuroinclusive Assessment'

12.00-12.30: Workshop

12.30-13.00: Lunch [provided]

13.00-13.50: Case study presentations 1 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions)

13.50-14.00: Break

14.00-14.50: Case study presentations 2 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions)

15:00: Close

Case Studies

12.00-12.30: Workshop

Ursula Canton and Andrew Cowell (leads) Chris Smith, Roberto Ramírez Iñiguez, Jeff Gibson, David Semple and Duncan McCormick, Glasgow Caledonian University, 'Acknowledging students' diverse motivations and focus for HE studies through assessment (re) design'

13.00-13.50: Case study presentations 1 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions)

Shona Howatt, Ayrshire College, 'Evidencing Learning Differently'

Francesca Soliman, Edinburgh Napier University, 'The kids are alright: moving beyond preconceived understandings of students' potential by implementing dialogic assessments'

Tracey Whitley, New College Lanarkshire, 'The Lived Story of a Student: Assessment using Floorbooks and Observation'

14.00-14.50: Case study presentations 2 (10 mins each, 15-20 mins for questions)

Mark Bonatti, City of Glasgow College, 'Turning Conceptual Learning into Assessment Success'

Janette Steel, Ayrshire College, 'Utilising Diverse Assessment Methods within FE and HE'

Kay Sidebottom, University of Stirling, 'Leading Otherwise: Disrupting Dominant Educational Leadership Paradigms through Creative Assessment'